

Develop Global Student Leaders Who Create a Sustainable World, Beginning Today

Ellen Moyer, Ph.D., P.E.

Ellen Moyer, Ph.D., P.E., believes we can repair the environmental crisis we're in and create a sustainable way of life — in an enjoyable way. She is an environmental consultant, author, and speaker with a B.A. in anthropology, M.S. in environmental engineering, and Ph.D. in civil engineering.

Dr. Moyer is a registered professional engineer as well as a U.S. Green Building Council Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design Accredited Professional. Her work focuses on sustainability, resource protection, economics, pollution prevention, and environmental cleanup.

Readers are loving her third book, Our Earth, Our Species, Our Selves: How to Thrive While Creating a Sustainable World, released in December 2016. Dr. Moyer is a regular contributor to The Huffington Post.

What if there was a fun, sustainable way for students to help their campus, their community, and their world? Dr. Moyer shows your students practical ways to create a sustainable future, while experiencing empowerment, hope, and excitement. She says, “Students will change the world and move us onto a sustainable path. If enough students use their gifts in work that advances their values, the students and our economy will thrive.”

Use Dr. Moyer to provide you an impactful: Leadership Day. Orientation. Keynote. Assembly. Workshop. Seminar.

Dr. Moyer's extensive speaking experience includes:

- Presentations on green design, sustainability, and climate change to university students
- 100 seminars in North America and Europe about remediating environmental contamination
- 60 presentations about biological water treatment
- A three-day course for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers
- Platform presentations at environmental conferences
- Testimony at public hearings and the Massachusetts State House

“Your talk was the best talk I have heard on climate change because it offered so much hope. You got past the doom and gloom and gave real guidance on simple things we can do right now - as individuals and as a society. Ellen, we CAN do it. We just HAVE to do it!” - William Young, Adjunct Professor, Temple University and University of Pennsylvania

“Dr. Moyer helps students see that solutions to our problems are within reach and that they have the power to create the change they want in the world. She offers insights that students can really use that can yield huge results. I highly recommend her!” – Paul Kosteki, Ph.D., Professor Emeritus, University of Massachusetts
